A rare opportunity to work from such a magnificent iconic property in the centre of Madrid. This prestigious period building was restored just a couple of years ago and transformed into the ultimate working environment with a total of 14 delightful offices plus meeting rooms and conference room facilities. An impressive staffed reception area provides the ultimate welcome for clients and performs a series of reception duties to maintain the professional image and smooth running of each business. The centre is of course equipped with all of the cutting edge technology needed to run a successful 21st century business with high speed broadband internet, ISDN lines, AV equipment and more.
